

Does your child have mild to moderate cerebral palsy?

A study at Arizona State University (Tempe) may improve their balance and walking ability!

Compensation:

$420 ($30 per visit)

Parking will be reimbursed for each visit

Participation Involves:

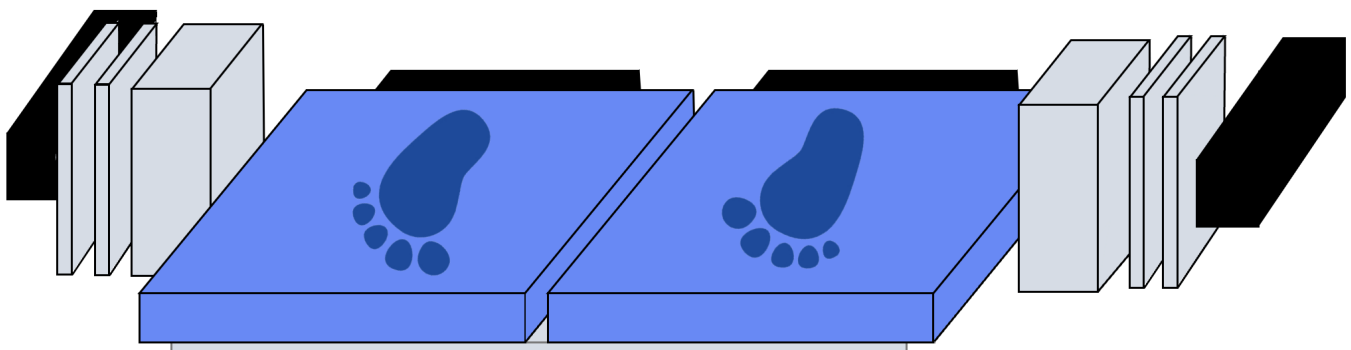

- 12 balance training sessions, twice a week, <2 hour each
- A baseline and follow-up visit, ~1 hour each

Qualifications:

- Age 8-14
- Diagnosed with diplegic (legs) cerebral palsy
- Can stand independently for 5 minutes at a time
- Can walk independently

Location:

ASU Tempe Campus, Engineering Center C (ECC), Room 117

Lab Website: <https://sites.google.com/view/asuneurorobotics/>

For more information, please contact Soubhagya Nayak at (480) 862-3460 or snayak13@asu.edu